RAI Amsterdam

HOW TO REACH THE RAI

BY CAR

The RAI is located right next to the Amsterdam ring road (A10), at exit S109. Numerous signboards indicate repeatedly to the RAI. During large exhibitions orange signs displaying 'P RAI' will direct you to additional parking places. From there a free shuttle bus will bring you to the RAI.

BY TRAIN

The intercity trains from Roosendaal/Belgium connect at Schiphol with trains going to the Amsterdam RAI station. At Schiphol you can change trains on the same platform. The fastest way to reach the RAI if you are coming from Arnhem/Germany, is to take the train to Amsterdam Duivendrecht station. Here you can change trains for the Amsterdam RAI station. There is also direct train connection with the Amsterdam RAI station from Rotterdam, the Hague, Leiden, Weesp, het Gooi and the Flevo polders.

BY TRAM & BUS

If you arrive at Amsterdam Central Station (CS), you can take the Amstelveen express tram 51 (travelling time: 12 minutes, exit at the Amsterdam RAI station) or tram 4 (travelling time: 30 minutes, exit at the RAI Europaplein). If you are travelling by train to the Amstel station, you can take the Amstelveen express tram 51 (travelling time: 5 minutes) or the bus (route 15, 69 or 169), which will bring you to the RAI within 10 minutes. In this case you should get off at RAI Europaplein.

BY AEROPLANE

Air travellers can make use of a direct train connection from Schiphol Airport to the RAI Exhibition and Congress Centre. You will arrive at the Amsterdam RAI station, which is within 7 minutes walking distance of the exhibition centre (about 2 minutes by no. 4 tram).
